

Bastille Day Monday 14th July

Dear Parents/Carers,

We have been working hard with the children teaching them about the 9 protected characteristics which fall under the equality act and protect everyone's individuality, they are what make you, you! We are teaching them:

Age
Religion
Gender
Who I choose to love
Race
Families
Having a baby
Being myself
Disability

In light of this we want to encourage the children to celebrate liberty, equality and unity so we will be learning about Bastille Day. It is France's national holiday as it marked the pivotal moment in which the French revolution ended.

On Monday 14th July, we would like the children to wear red, white or blue in order to support the day.

Kind Regards,

Miss Hanson
